DESCRIPTION

- 7a. Architectural style: Italianate Cottage
- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical description of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

This Italianate cottage has a square hip roof. The boxed cornice and molded frieze has pairs of equally spaced sawn brackets. The windows are tall, narrow double-hungs, found singly and in pairs on either side of the front door. The windows and doorway have bracketed, molded hoods, and sill blocks. The recessed entrance has paneled sides, and a transom over the paneled door with glass inserts. The front porch has a hip roof with elaborately leveled posts and sawn brackets which differ from those on the cornice. In the rear are additions with the same channel rustic siding as the main structure.
