SIG 19.	NIFICANCE Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)
	This period revival home was built in 1936 on the site called Pigeon Hill for Miss Vera Moran, a teacher at the local high school, it is thought to be one of the first houses built in town with a government assisted loan.
	The house was purchased in the 1940's by Henry Passalacqua a son of a prominent Healdsburg family, who had worked their way out of the Ward District "Italian town" to wealth and social prominence. Henry or "Enrico" as he was called had an illustrious career in the 1920's as a singer of grand opera, touring the continent with his wife Blessilla, and at one time auditioning for the Great Caruso.
