SIGNIFICANCE

19. Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)
One of the few remaining 19th century residences in this area, the Susie N. Field house is a testimony to the continuity of agricultural land use in the southern portion of the survey area. Located on the southeast Miller property in the 1877 Atlas and Susie N. Field property in the 1898 Atlas, this parcel is one of the many small agricultural land holdings owned by Walter and Susie Field. Walter, born 1846 in Maine, came to Healdsburg in 1863, and, besides farming, took over ownership of his father Thomas A.'s business property on the plaza. Susie, born 1857 in Missouri, married Walter in 1887 and had two daughters.

Viewed head-on, this house presents a pleasingly symmetrical facade and exhibits some of the period's typical decorative elements such as the sawn brackets and balustrade and paneled entry.
