DESCRIPTION

- 7a. Architectural style: Queen Anne Transitional
- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical description of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

This basically square one-story house has a truncated hip roof with a side gable, a gabled dormer on the opposite side, and a gabled, square, front bay. There is a porch on two sides which is curved at the corner. In the rear is a hip roofed addition. The cornice is boxed and the gables have small windows and cut shingles. The windows are double-hung with some of the upper sashes in a diamond pattern. The porch has slender round columns that once sat atop a solid balustrade, currently under repair. The siding is channel rustic
