SIGNIFICANCE

19. Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)

This is a good example of typical Queen Anne architecture on the first story of the house with the second story being heavily influenced by the "shingle style" of architecture and thus placing it in a very transitional mode. As such, it is an outstanding building.

This house was built by Levi Ketcham, a native of Indiana, and his wife Alice Bartlett. Ketcham, a civil war veteran, came to Healdsburg in 1895 and retired to this home until his death, in 1919.
