DESCRIPTION

- 7a. Architectural style: Craftsman Bungalow
- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical description of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

This one story bungalow has a gable roof and gabled side and rear bays. The roof beams are extended beneath the barge rafter and the ends of the rafters are exposed. The siding is rustic and windows are double-hung or plate glass. The wooden entrance door is paneled with four small panes of plain glass in the upper portion. A gable roof covers the front porch which has a concrete block balustrade. Supporting the porch roof are short, tapered pillars atop concrete block pedestals.
