DESCRIPTION

7a. Architectural style: Queen Anne

7b. Briefly describe the present physical description of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

The main hip-roof of this one-story house has a gablet and a gabled side dormer. There are gabled bays in the front and on the side. Front and side porches have hip roofs. The house has a boxed cornice with small brackets. The bay gables have segmented windows with colored glass and cut shingles. The gablet has a pointed vent and it and the dormer gable also have cut shingles. The slanted front bay has molded panels beneath the windows and corner braces with pendants. The side bay is square and has a bracketed awning. The windows are tall, narrow, double-hungs. The front porch has turned posts, and sawn chamfered posts and sawn brackets. The siding is channel rustic with vertical boards covering the foundation.
